

Parador de Cadiz

The Parador:

Situated in a residential area surrounded by palm trees at the very tip of the promontory on which Cádiz is built, this strikingly modern and beautifully elegant Parador fully deserves its name: Hotel Atlantico. The history of Cádiz goes back some 3000 years (it was said to have been founded by Hercules), and there are plenty of historical buildings to visit, including the walls and fortresses of Puertas Tierra, and the baroque cathedral. The port grew rich on the Atlantic trade after Columbus had discovered the New World, and it was of course here in 1587 that Sir Francis Drake 'singd the king of Spain's beard' by burning the Spanish fleet.
