

Parador de Alarcon

The Parador:

Situated on the boundary between La Mancha and Levante, some 80 kilometres from Cuenca, this wonderfully preserved 8th century Moorish fortress, with its impressive castellated keep, stands high on a promontory above the River Júcar. The village of Alarcon itself has been declared a Historic-Artistic Site due to its superb monuments and natural surroundings that have been well preserved over the years. Alarcon and its Parador, therefore, offer their visitors an exceptional trip, steeped in culture and history.
