

Parador de Cazorla

The Parador:

Set far to the northeast of Granada in the heart of the Cazorla Nature Reserve and some 26 km from the town of Cazorla, this unpretentious yet comfortable hotel provides a welcoming rustic retreat for the visitor. Cazorla itself has a fine castle, and the churches of Carmen and Santa Maria are also worth a visit, while the remote area of the Cazorla Nature Reserve, mountainous and forested, is a refuge for deer, wild boar and ibex.

Primary Facilities:

- Lift
- Parking (chargeable)
- Wi-Fi
- Gardens
- Swimming Pool

Key Activities:

- Hiking
- Hunting and fishing
- Cazorla Nature Reserve

Keytel Tips:

- Break free from everyday life and revel in Cazorla's beautiful outdoors, whether on foot, bike or horseback.
- Set your tastebuds alight with a bowl ajoharina, a typical potato and cod dish from Jaen.

Directions

Arriving by car:

The Parador is located in the heart of the Cazorla Nature Reserve at an altitude of 1400m and just 26 km from the town of Cazorla. The approach road to the Parador is conveniently signposted, with signs always on your right as you ascend after passing through the security gate in the town of Burunchel, where you gain entrance to this protected area. You can reach the security gate by taking the N-322 highway, which connects Ubeda with Baeza, and which then joins the A319 road, which leads to 'Peal de Becerro-Cazorla'.

Nearest airport: Malaga Airport (230km)
