

Parador de Lorca

The Parador:

Located in the region of Murcia in southeast Spain, Lorca is probably one of its most important tourist centres, and has been declared a Historic and Artistic Site because of its archaeological sites dating back to the Palaeolithic period and the wealth of important Baroque monuments in the old quarter. The Parador Lorca is a four star hotel built within the castle and is linked to part of the castle walls. One of the highlights of the Parador is the 15th century synagogue which is enclosed to prevent erosion. This beautiful hotel not only offers comfortable accommodation, spa and gym, but it also has its own restaurant serving excellent local dishes and wines.

Primary Facilities:

- Lift
- Parking (chargeable)
- Wi-Fi
- Swimming pool (indoors)

Key Activities:

- The 13th Century Gothic Castle of Lorca
- Lorca's Embroidery and Archaeological Museums
- The Palace of Guevara

Keytel Tips:

- The Spa is definitely worth visiting, as it provides access to the swimming pool and its breath-taking views.
- With its conference rooms, the Parador is ideal for business trips, mixing both a relaxing and luxurious environment in which to work.

Directions

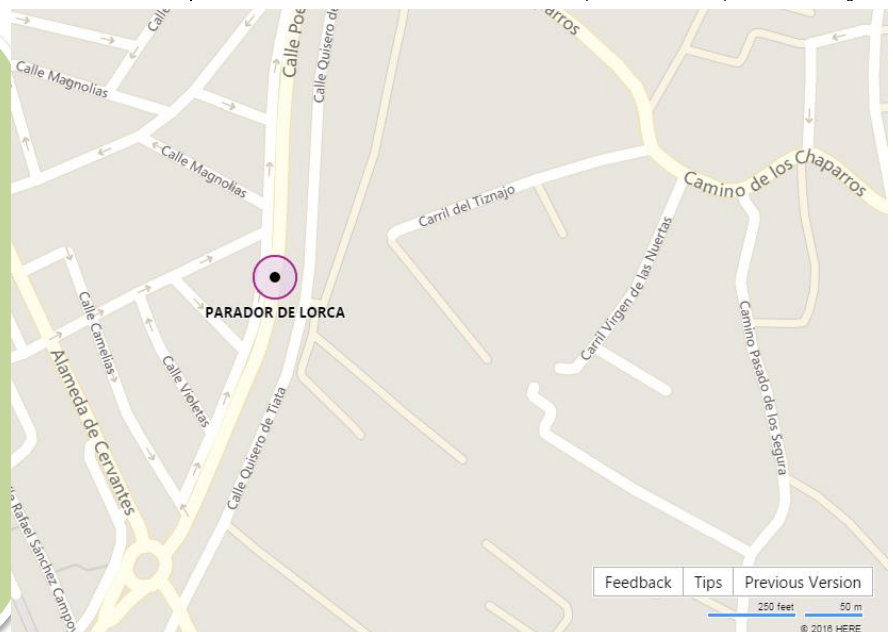

Arriving by car:

Follow the motorway A7 (former N-340) called "Autovia del Mediterraneo", connecting Lorca with Granada and Andalusia and follow the signs through the city of the riverbank to pick up the approach road leading up to the castle where the Parador is located. Just before you arrive at the Parador you will pass through a small tunnel controlled by traffic lights, before you reach the main entrance and the car park.

Arriving by train:

The Parador de Lorca is situated North-West of the train station. You can reach it in a taxi for an approximately 10 minutes journey or by foot; a walk which would take a little more than half an hour.

Nearest airport: Alicante Airport (140km)
