

Parador de Fuente Dé

The Parador:

This comfortable modern mountain refuge, some 90 km southwest of Santander, is stunningly situated in the heart of the Picos de Europa, in the spectacular Cirque of Fuente Dé, the source of the River Deva – hence the name of the hotel: Río Deva. The Parador is surrounded by meadows, wooded slopes and soaring, rocky peaks, and is located at the foot of the cable car leading up to the magnificent Áliva viewpoint. Inside the hotel, the extensive use of wood, and the leather furniture create a warm and welcoming atmosphere.

Primary Facilities:

- Lift
- Parking (chargeable)
- Wi-Fi
- Gardens

Key Activities:

- Hiking
- Mountain biking & horseriding
- Picos de Europa National Park

Keytel Tips:

- A hiker's paradise, there are routes throughout the Picos which offer mesmerising views that stir the soul.
- El Soplao Cave system, an hour and a half's drive from the Parador, is 20km of stalactites and stalagmites to explore.
