

Parador de Gijon

The Parador:

This attractive Parador, occupying a lovingly restored century-old water mill, and still surrounded by water, is in the beautiful Isabel la Católica Park in Gijón. San Lorenzo beach is close by, and Gijón itself, situated on the Asturian coast to the north of Oviedo, has been a port since Roman times, and today also has a marina.

Primary Facilities:

- Lift
- Parking (chargeable)
- Wi-Fi
- Gardens

Key Activities:

- La Cimadevilla: Gijon's old town
- Campo Valdés Roman Baths (museum)
- Monte Deva Nature Reserve

Keytel Tips:

- The Parador does not have a swimming pool, but there are several beautiful beaches within the city limits of Gijon: the beaches of San Lorenzo, Poniente and Arbeyal are indeed there for you to enjoy a swim if the weather is too hot.
