

Parador de Alcañiz

The Parador:

Steeped in history, this Parador incorporates a castle-convent built in the 12th–13th century, and an 18th-century Aragonese palace. In 1179 the Order of Calatrava, the first military order founded in Spain, was awarded the castle of Alcañiz and surrounding estates in gratitude for their services against the Moors. The great historic complex stands foursquare on a hill above the old town and the River Guadalupe, dominating the surrounding landscape of the Maestrazgo.
