

Parador de Mojácar

The Parador:

Directly in front of a golden beach and enjoying one of the best microclimates in Spain, this very comfortable modern Parador is about half way between Almería and Cartagena. As well as enjoying the sand and the sea, guests should also visit the nearby attractive whitewashed town of Mojácar up in the hills behind the hotel, a town that traces its origins to Phoenician times, and which, under Moorish rule, was famous for the mutual tolerance of its Muslim, Christian and Jewish inhabitants. At the Parador itself the garden includes a swimming pool, a tennis court and a children's play area and the bright bedrooms all have terraces overlooking the sea.

Primary Facilities:

- Parking (chargeable)
- Wi-Fi
- Gardens
- Swimming Pool

Key Activities:

- Cabo de Gata-Nijar Nature Reserve
- The old Ficus on Town Hall Square
- Santa María Parish Church

Keytel Tips:

- With 17kilometres of coastline right by the Parador, going to the beach can easily turn into a true exploration of the environments.
- For cycling enthusiasts, there are plenty of cycling paths to go on both in the city and the mountains.
