

Parador de El Saler

The Parador:

The Parador has undergone major renovation and has reopened as a totally new construction that is sympathetic to the natural park environment where it is situated. It is made mostly of attractive natural stone, wood and glass giving it a very contemporary feel. The reconstruction has also included a spa where guests enjoy a discounted entrance fee payable locally. A must for all lovers of golf, thanks to its 18 holes course considered to be one of the best in the world, this Parador also has the services and facilities necessary for family holidays while enjoying the coast, or to get away from the daily bustle.

Primary Facilities:

- Lift
- Parking (chargeable)
- Wi-Fi
- Swimming Pool
- Spa

Key Activities:

- The Campo de Golf El Saler
- The 'City of Arts and Science' complex in Valencia
- Albufera National Park

Keytel Tips:

- If you are planning to travel in March, the Fallas Festival held during this month is a fantastic opportunity to get involved with local festivities with funfairs and fireworks illuminating the city.

Directions

Arriving by car:

The Parador is located between Lake Albufera and the Mediterranean Sea. Coming from the south on the AP7 highway, take the Cullera exit. You should pass through Sueca and then, heading in the direction of Valencia, you should pass through the towns of El Perelló and El Perellonet before reaching the Parador. From Madrid, Barcelona and the airport head towards the port (Puerto) on the V30 road. Take the El Saler exit onto the CV500 road and head towards El Perelló-Devesa, taking care not to head into the town of El Saler or the Les Gavines residential area.

Arriving by train:

The nearest train station to the Parador de El Saler is the train station of Valencia. If you book a taxi from there, it will take you only 30 minutes to reach the Parador.
