

Parador de Santillana Del Mar

The Parador:

This attractive Parador, which originally served as an annexe to the nearby Parador de Santillana Gil Blas, beautifully maintains the traditional local style of architecture, with stone arches, pantiled roof, wooden balconies and beamed roofs. Located conveniently close to Santander, and on the main square of one of the most attractive and well-preserved old villages in Spain, the Parador de Santillana is a good base for exploring both the northern coast of Cantabria and the magnificent mountains of the Picos de Europa.

Primary Facilities:

- Lift
- Parking (chargeable)
- Wi-Fi
- Garden

Key Activities:

- Calle de Santo Domingo
- Altamira Caves
- Cabarcero National Park

Keytel Tips:

- This is a town to enjoy on foot, so do not hesitate to walk around in the city's pedestrian streets.
- It is worth observing the architecture and atmosphere from one of the terraces in the evening before or after dinner.
