

Parador de Limpias

The Parador:

This recently opened Parador, just a few minutes from the coast in the little village of Limpias, is conveniently situated roughly half way between Bilbao and Santander. It comprises a 19th-century palace designed by Emilio de la Torre for a local nobleman, plus a light and airy modern wing, designed in the Bauhaus style. The Palacio de Egulior, as it is known, was used as the summer home of the council of King Alfonso XIII (reigned 1886–1931), and is surrounded by 5 hectares of park land containing so many rare specimen trees that it has been declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO.

Primary Facilities:

- Lift
- Parking and garage (chargeable)
- Wi-Fi
- Gardens
- Swimming pool

Key Activities:

- Limpias' River Museum
- Beaches of nearby Laredo

Keytel Tips:

- Limpias is a popular site for those wishing to explore rural areas of Spain.
- A short hike or drive from Limpias brings you to the small town of Ampuero, famed for its running of the bulls during the San Fermín festival.
